

MEDIA CONTACT:

Brandi Weyer, Communications Director
812-937-9730; brandi@lincolnamphitheatre.com

Two added to Lincoln Amphitheatre staff

LINCOLN CITY, IND—With the addition of two new members to the staff of Lincoln Amphitheatre, the summer theatre’s year-round team is now complete.

Rachel Carver is Lincoln Amphitheatre’s administrative assistant. Her duties include bookkeeping and developing weekly budget reports, plus assisting the managing producer and communications director with daily tasks. A graduate of Boonville High School, Carver earned a bachelor’s degree in accounting from Evansville’s Harrison College. Rachel resides in Boonville with her family.

Brandi Weyer is the new communications director at Lincoln Amphitheatre. She oversees advertising, marketing, public relations and group sales efforts for the summer theatre. Weyer is a Forest Park High School graduate. Her college years at the University of Southern Indiana netted Weyer three Bachelor of Arts degrees, in advertising, journalism and Spanish, with minors in marketing and management. She was also editor-in-chief for USI’s student-run newspaper, “The Shield.” Weyer resides in Huntingburg with her family.

The two-act play with music, “LINCOLN”, will return to Lincoln Amphitheatre with surprises in store for the 2010 season. For more information about “LINCOLN”, playwright Ken Jones, and Lincoln Amphitheatre, visit www.lincolnamphitheatre.com.